

Despite the fact that Kate and Petruchio are both malicious, Kate and Petruchio are compatible because they are both intelligent and speak their mind....Jesus Macedo

Despite the fact that Kate acted like a shrew to Petruchio at the beginning of the play, Kate was indeed tamed by Petruchio because she obeyed Petruchio when he called her, and she has not spoken out of turn to him since they were married....Billy Fitzgerald

Despite Kate appearing to be tamed at the end of the play, her strong ways could never be changed due to how smart she is, and the way she can play the game...William Mitchell

Even though it may appear that Kate is indeed tamed by the end of the play, she is not because she has caught onto Petruchio's game, and she is now understanding how to get what she wants...Stef Neylon

Even though Kate seems to hate Petruchio, I still believe they are compatible because she is willing to take the physical and mental abuse, and she has a lot of money...Ryan Gaussein

Although Petruchio and Kate fought many times in the play, they are indeed compatible because they are both quick-witted and are not afraid to speak their mind...Chris Wetzel

Despite the fact that Kate did not get along with Petruchio most of the time, they are compatible because they are the two raging fires that tame each other, and they begin to love each other...Marty McKenna

Although the characters in the Induction are never seen again in the play, the Induction showed that no one is really who they are and that everything is a joke...Maggie Frausto

Even though Kate appears to be a woman who does what she is told, Kate still is not quite "tamed" because she is using deception to get people to do things her way, and she has found a more cunning way to get her point across to others that seems orderly...Aolani Cahue

Although Kate appears to not be very modern and is from the sixteenth-century, Kate would most likely be a twentieth-century person because she knows how to stand up for herself and knows how to not let men boss her around....Paige Harkabus

Despite the fact that Kate did not want to marry Petruchio at the beginning of the play and fought him, Kate and Petruchio are compatible because they both know what they want in life, and Petruchio likes Kate because she is different and that is the first time someone has accepted her...Paige Harkabus

Even though Kate appears to be tamed at the end of the play, Kate is not tamed because she has learned how to act calm around people but still be herself, and she learned how to put on an act of kindness to still get what she wants...Paige Harkabus

Although Kate often shows signs that she is not tamed, she is indeed tamed since she consistently agrees with Petruchio and starts to become friendly towards others...Paige

Despite Kate acting like a shrew and her unwillingness to marry, Kate and Petruchio are compatible because they both have the power to manipulate one another and see each other for who they really are...Julia Johnson

Although Kate was originally a shrew, Kate is indeed tamed because she comes when her husband calls her, and she understands the role of which a wife is supposed to play...Tommy Peters
