

Peyton Lockhart

“Singing for More”

Like the sun that lights up the sky, grandma’s personality is bright.

My grandma is my compass keeping me away from dead ends and showing me what’s right.

Grandma’s cooking is unique like unknown candy, leaving your taste buds singing for more.

Like the fairest judge, she is never rude and tolerates the family that she adores.

Like the cherry on top of that sweet, creamy ice cream that makes everybody smile, people enjoy having her around.

Grandma would clear the dark clouds above your head if you were ever feeling down.

Grandma’s hugs are warm and pleasant, like cookies that just came out from the oven.

Grandma would light up your day like a flashlight if you were ever blue all of a sudden.

Exploring new things with grandma is always another lesson in life to remember forever.

As much as grandma loves to sew, when she is working she keeps everything together.