

"Live Your Life the Way You Want It to Be"

Vocabulary Unit 1 Extra Credit

Kelly Pawlak

Emma Toomey

We are not abashed by our singing skills so full of class

This is not something normal

This is an aberration that came from our imagination

For all you abstract characters out there

You better open up your ears

I am abstruse in some ways

I am abysmal some days

Please try to help me I was born klutzy

I am trying my absolute best

To pass your stereotypical tests

I am not going to get in your acrimonious arguments

Do not abhor me,

For I was born crazy

Someday I will win accolades

You will only fade away

You will be an acrid apple rotting away

One day I will have aficionados

Do not accost me,

Do not boss me,

I am no longer going to absolve you

You were never bona fide

I am so sick of your lies

I am not going to abnegate from my position as weirdest celebrity

Be an adherent for your dreams

Do what you have an adulation for

Do not abate away

From your dreams of fame

You don't have to be au courant to live your life the way it is meant

I must be a propos for I'm coming off as slow,

Just live your life the way you want it to be!

I see you driven around town with a girl I love
And I abhor you
My abridged money wasn't enough
And I abhor you and abhor him too

If I had a absolute supply, I wouldn't be denied
Therefore I'm abashed
And although there's pain in my chest
Being your adherent's the best

Yeah, I'm Sorry, I Can't get an Accolade
But dat don't mean I can't get you one
I guess she's amazing, and I'm just abysmal
The way you play your game is abstract

I accost the fool who falls in love with you
I got news for you thats aberration
Yeah, go run and abate all of that crying

I acted pretty acid to her didn't I
But I still abhor him
I still guess that My abridged money wasn't enough
I'm like abhor you and abhor him too

I admonished him if he ever got close to you again
Now ain't that abstruse
I need you to absolve me, I feel real bad
I'm sorry about our acrimonious conversation

I will abdicate from you and you can tell me what to do
I think al fresco will be good for us
I will not abnegate my things from you

I will try to adulate your personal situations
Well, and won't use acute objects
Like I did last time

I sorry for my actions
But I still abhor him
My abridged money wasn't enough
And I abhor you and abhor him too
